READY FOR A MOON AGE PROPOSAL?

So if you're dreaming of an ethereal and whimsical wedding, Moon Age Beauty has you covered. We'd love to help you bring your dreams to life and make your special day truly magical for you. Contact us today to schedule a consultation and let us embark on this enchanting journey together.

THE BEAUTY PROCESS

Our process begins with an inquiry form to determine our availability and how many people require our services. Keep in mind that Alissa and Clare can only accommodate around 5-6 guests per wedding before an assistant is needed.

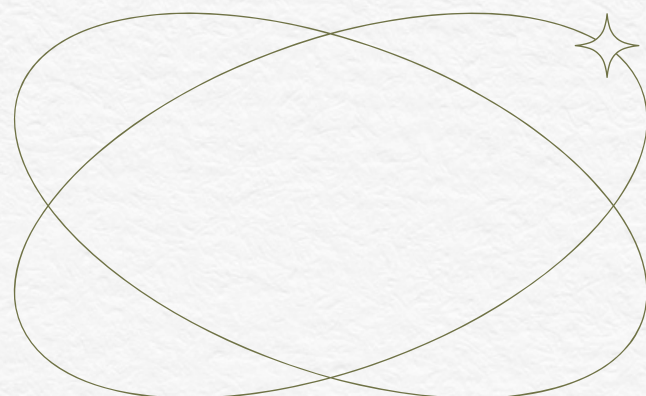

We will prepare a quote for you, a contract, and an invoice for a deposit to reserve your wedding date so we won't book another bride on that day. The day is yours if we fit into your wedding budget and you are ready to begin.

After reviewing and signing the contract and paying the 20% deposit, your big day is officially booked! As a start, we'll provide a New Client Checklist to cover as much information as possible, but we're always available for questions.

When all the formalities are completed, we will send you a tentative schedule and a questionnaire for your guests. You will be provided with a timeline based on the information you provide on the inquiry form. About 2-4 weeks before the event, we like to finalize everything.

BRIDAL TRIAL SESSION

Bridal trial invitations will arrive 14 weeks prior to the wedding. With enough time to narrow down your style and not too far from the wedding, we can keep everything we learn about your hair and makeup fresh in our minds. You will love getting cozy in one of our houses, and we will always make sure you have enough time to do so!

Client Testimonial

Danielle R.

You're crazy not to hire Moon Age Bridal. I met with Clare and Alissa for makeup and hair trials and each session was so amazing and so personalized to really get to the heart of not only your look but personality.

Rachel B.

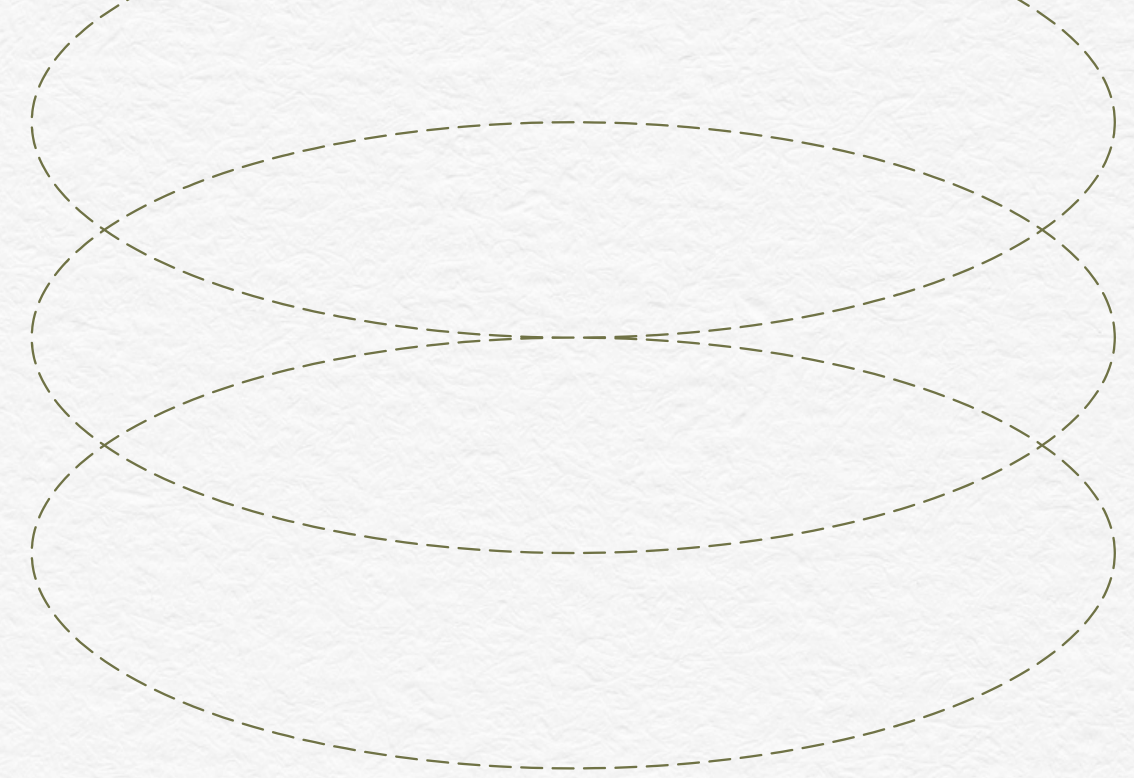

The moment we read the name of their business we knew they were the right people to help us feel beautiful and confident on our wedding day. What we didn't expect was to feel like our best friends were the ones doing our hair and make up.

Rebecca S.

I don't even know where to begin with writing something about Clare and Alyssa. They are the most patient, caring, talented, and wonderful duo of women and work so well together. The moment I met them at a bridal convention, I immediately knew they were my glam squad. I had my trial with them and we had a blast just chit-chatting about everything under the sun and they made me look exactly what I asked for. Do not hesitate, you will not be disappointed. I am envious of all future brides that get to hang out with them!
